The Bolling Wilson Hotel is located in Southwest Virginia with easy access from I-81 at the crossroads of I-77. The property offers a downtown location within the Main Street walking district featuring its shops, boutiques, antique stores and restaurants. The hotel offers a ballroom, outdoor courtyard and rooftop bar venue, The Perch. Winner of Best Boutique Hotel in Virginia for the Southwest region. Onsite restaurant Graze on Main.

A little history - Wytheville is the birthplace home to Edith Bolling Wilson, President Woodrow Wilson’s second wife. As First Lady, some would say, she was truly the first woman president as she ran the White House after President Woodrow Wilson’s stroke. Mrs. Wilson’s birthplace home is located directly across the street from the hotel.

info@westernfronthotel.com
 276-738-3040

Winner of the 2018 Main Street Award, the Western Front Hotel is located in Southwest Virginia in the foothills of the beautiful Appalachian Mountains. With the Spearhead Trails on one side and the Clinch River on the other, this hotel is centrally located to adrenalin loaded fun! The hotel features a meeting room, two outdoor terraces, the BackYard outdoor venue, The Roost entertainment space and onsite restaurant Milton’s.

A little history - St. Paul was once a rough and tumble town due to its proximity to the coal mines. As a result, many said the town was rowdier than the Western Front during World War I, thus it earned the nickname. We like to say we’re Rowdy in a Good Way!

Hotel Weyanoke
